

DANGEROUS PRAYERS

DAY 7:

WHAT IS PRAYER ANYWAYS?

It may seem odd to ask this question after a week of engaging in prayer. But asking this question is important as we move from one dangerous prayer to another. Read this article to challenge your perspective on prayer.

REFLECT:

- What did you see God do in the area of your life where you are applying greater boldness?
- Take time to pause in prayer today and allow God to speak to you.
- Is there more than one area of your life that you feel God may be calling you towards greater boldness? What does growing in this look like for you in this season?
- What was helpful from this week that would be helpful to share with Your ONE?

PRAY:

Father, I pause today to seek You and Your voice. Thank You for what You have done in my life this week in applying greater boldness to my life. Help me to continue to courageously live this out. May I continue to boldly seek You, Your voice, Your will for my life and the courage to live it out!
