

FAMILY

DEVOTIONAL RESOURCES

ELEMENTARY

Ready to engage your kids with something beyond playing another video game or binge-watching TV? Yes, please, you say . . . but, how?

It can be hard to get your kid to read something voluntarily—especially if they think they may learn something while doing so! But what if your kid could start a journey that led them to grow and experience God in a way that they actually enjoyed? And even better, what if your family enjoyed that experience together?

Here's a list of fun, interactive, and creative resources designed for that exact purpose.

(For more information or to order, visit the Parent Cue Store at ParentCueStore.org.)

Amped: Live Fully Alive: Devotional

There are two ways to do life: You can exist. Or you can really live. The first way is sort of unavoidable. But the second—really living—is a choice that takes confidence. It means really believing what God says is true so you can make not only good choices, but the best choices. So you can live fully alive. So . . . what does God say? And what are you supposed to do about it? That's what this book is about. You only get one shot at life. Are you ready to make the most of it? Are you ready to make it count? Are you ready to leave the bunny slopes behind? Are you ready to shred? Are you ready to get Amped?

Gadgets and Gizmos: Devotional

Gadgets and Gizmos is a nine-week devotional filled with fascinating stories, interesting tidbits, and practical tips about God's creation, your child's uniqueness, and how they can use their unique creativity to love God and others. Plus, your kid will encounter some pretty tricky—and messy—experiments and challenges along the way. A great hands-on journey for that inquisitive student who likes to do instead of read!

Love Is: Devotional

Love Is . . . the main point of the Bible. the reason people go to church every Sunday. the purpose of Jesus's life. If you want to know what Christianity is all about, if you want to follow God, if you want to live like Jesus, LOVE is a great place to start. This four-week devotional is for kids like you who want to know how to live like Jesus. Each week, you will learn ways to apply this verse to your daily life: "And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature and grew in favor with God and people" (Luke 2:52). Because, just like Jesus, we want you to grow up with WISDOM, FAITH, AND FRIENDSHIPS. And those three things all come down to understanding one big word: LOVE.

Where in the World: Devotional

Where in the World is a nine-week, interactive journal that helps kids understand what God says about Jesus and our faith in Him. Weekly stories reveal who Jesus is and why He came through the lens of the life and ministry of Paul. Daily activities help kids discover how Jesus' story can change their story.

Stand Up: Get In The Story: Devotional

Stand Up is an eight-week, interactive journal that helps kids understand what God says about conviction. At the beginning of each week, they'll read about one of the many people from the Bible who stood up for what's right and were a part of God's story. Then, each day's devotional thought or activity will help kids discover ways they can stand up and get in the story too.

Over the Fence: Devotional

Take one mysterious fence, add two friends with a perfect plan for the summer, mix in a new kid from next door and a cousin from New York City. What do you get? The perfect recipe for adventure . . . and for discovering the true meaning of friendship. Join Emma, Ethan, Lily, and Marco on their quest to uncover what's over the fence. Each 5-day week starts out with a story, followed by four days of devotionals. This nine-week adventure is the perfect blend of chapter book and devotionals for elementary-age kids.