Day 7: The Bible

Another way that we connect with Jesus and learn more about Him is by reading the Bible. The Bible contains sixty-six different books of varying lengths written by an assortment of authors. There are two main divisions in the Bible—the Old Testament and New Testament. The books themselves are divided into chapters and verses. For instance, John 3:16 refers to the book of John, chapter three, verse sixteen.

Spending a little bit of time each day is the most beneficial way to read the Bible and connect with God. Having this quiet time or time set aside to read the Bible and reflect on it isn't about checking a task off a list or becoming more acceptable to God. It's about communicating with Him and cultivating an intimate relationship with Him. When we want to get to know another person, we spend time with them, learn about them, and simply enjoy their company. The same is true with God. The more time we spend with God, the better we get to know Him and His will for our lives. Given that life is so full of distraction, how can we prioritize this time? Here are a few tips for developing a routine.
